

R G BARUAH COLLEGE

Guwahati, Assam

Teachers feedback on Curriculum

Feed Back report of Teachers on Course Curriculum for 2022-23

Being a part of Affiliated University, the teachers of R.G.Baruah college has to follow the course curriculum constructed by Gauhati University.To get the feedback on Curriculum,the IQAC of R.G.Baruah College has framed 8 questions on various dimensions of the Curriculum.

- Q.1 was about the usefulness of interdisciplinary approach of ongoing CBCS curriculum where 93% voted for Yes, 0% for No and 7% for not Sure.
- Q.2 was on the difficulty level of the syllabus where 93% voted for No and only 3% said Yes.
- Q.3 was on need of modification of the Course Content where 72.4% said Yes, 17% said No. and 10.6% were Not sure.
- Q.4 was about time allocation to complete the syllabus where 58% voted for Insufficient, 34% said Sufficient and remaining are Not sure.
- Q.5 was on the enquiry of helpfulness of the course for future establishment of students, 58% said yes, where 17% said No and others were Not sure.
- Q.6 was on the satisfaction of the list of tools/equipment used in the practical part of the syllabus where 37% said Yes, 37% Not sure and remaining said No.
- Q.7 was on essentiality of Project/ Field Survey/Assignment for the respective subject where 97% voted for Yes, 0% said No. 3% Not Sure.
- Q. 8 was about the Gender Sensitivity aspect of the Curriculum where 55% said Yes,38% said No. and a small portion was Not Sure.

Although most of the faculties were silent on suggestions, a suggestion for Economics (Hons) was given for redesigning the Statistics ( for 3rd Semester) and Econometrics syllabus in a consistent way. Also ,in English literature syllabus, suggestion was given to incorporate Criticism part and the specialization should begin from Semester 3 onwards.

Principal;
R. G. Baruah College
Guwahati-781025