From the Principal's Desk

NEP 2020 aims to transform India's Education system by promoting holistic, flexible and multidisciplinary learning for the 21st century. I am very much delighted to know that the RGBC newsletter cell is going to release the issue for the session 2025. Apart from realizing the goal of academic excellence the newsletter will highlight the activities of the different segments of the college as well as the individual talents of our faculty and students. It will disseminate the ideas to the reader about the journey of the college in academic and extension activities which will stimulate the new generation to step forward in right direction. The college has striven towards all-round development with the collaboration of all concerned namely faculty members, non teaching staff, parents, guardians, students and well wishers. We convey our sincere and profound appreciation with a fervid hope that they will ever continue to support and stand by the institution. We are confident that the college will reach glorious height in the upcoming years through the combined efforts of all the stakeholders.

Dr. Pranjit Kumar Nath
Principal,
R. G. Baruah College,

Departmental Activities

Department of Assamese

● In collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), the Departments of Bengali and Assamese jointly observed International Mother Language Day on 21st February 2025. The programme was inaugurated by the Principal, Dr. Pranjit Kumar Nath. Dr. Mukul Chakraborty, retired Head of the Department of MIL, Gauhati University, attended the event as the keynote speaker. In his address, he expressed concern over the gradual neglect of mother tongue practices in Assam, despite the emphasis on mother tongue-based education in the country's New Education Policy. He further emphasized that such neglect could distance the younger generation from their rich cultural heritage and weaken the social fabric of society. The programme witnessed the active participation of teachers and students, and concluded with the distribution of prizes among the winners of various literary competitions.

● On 16th October 2025, the Department organised a two-day National Seminar on the theme “Oral Tradition and Indigenous Narratives of North-East India: Preserving a Literary Heritage” in collaboration with the Assam Prakashan Parishad. The welcome address was delivered by Dr. Pranjit Kumar Nath. Dr. Lipika Talukdar explained the objectives of the seminar and highlighted the significance of this academic initiative undertaken by the department. The Vice-Principal, Dr. Dipak Pathak, was also present on the occasion. The keynote address was delivered by Dr. Anil Boro, Professor in the Department of Folklore Research, Gauhati University. In his speech, he observed that since the dawn of human civilization, people have used words and stories as powerful mediums to express their emotions, experiences, joys, and sorrows. Dr. Kanak Chandra Saharia attended the inaugural session as the chief guest. Altogether, 50 research papers were presented during the seminar, making the programme a significant academic success.

● On 27th March 2025, the Department celebrated ‘Literary Day’ in commemoration of the death anniversary of Lakshminath Bezbarua. As part of the programme, a meaningful discussion on the theme “Songs of Lakshminath Bezbarua and Patriotism” was delivered by Manjyotsna Mahanta Goswami, a noted singer of the state and Associate Professor at Handique Girls’ College. In her address, she described Lakshminath Bezbarua as the pioneer of a new golden age in Assamese literature. She offered an insightful analysis of romantic literature and discussed the literary significance of the ‘Jonaki’ and ‘Bahi’ eras, citing examples from his songs, poems, and plays. During the programme, Manjyotsna Mahanta Goswami also performed several songs composed by Lakshminath Bezbarua and explained the meanings and literary essence of the lyrics. The session further included an engaging interaction with the audience on the songs and literary contributions of Bezbarua. On the occasion, the prestigious 'Ashar Tara' academic award was conferred upon Anjuma Begum in recognition of securing the highest marks in the college in the 2024 Undergraduate Final Examination conducted under Gauhati University. The programme was also graced by the presence of guest artist Hriday Goswami, along with the faculty members and students of the college, making the event both solemn and intellectually enriching. On the occasion, the 'Ashar Tara' academic award was presented to Anjuma Begum for securing the highest marks in the college in the 2024 Undergraduate Final Examination under Gauhati University. Guest artist Hriday Goswami, along with faculty members and students of the college, attended the solemn and enriching programme.

● On 8th March 2025, International Women's Day was celebrated under the initiative of the Department.
